how to break up with the person sitting across from them, incredibly jealous.
While they have to sit in forced kindness, spending $125 for roses that will be $10 or so the next day, you and your crew will be having the time of your lives. This is well worth the time. Just make sure you call for reservations. You don't want to spend the night in the waiting area.

Take yourself to a movie

If you're not up for the restaurant idea, check out some of the movies playing all over the area.

The Academy Awards will be announced at the end of the month and you really did mean to see "Dreamgirls" before then, so what better time than Valentine's Day?
Any of the major theaters will still be playing it, but if you're not for hearing an unbelievable version of "And I Am Telling You I'm Not Going" by Jennifer Hudson, go over to AFI and catch Barbara Stanwick in "Lady Eve" (at 7pm) or Stanley Kubrick's "Lolita" (at 9pm). You can go alone or with friends and either movie will make you glad to be alone this Valentine's Day, so go out, spend your $9.25 at AFI or Majestic Cinemas and take in a show.

Get a tattoo or a piercing

You know you've been secretly thinking about this one for quite some time. Every time you go to the gym or the grocery store and you see someone with a tattoo or a nose ring, you're secretly intrigued. Now's the time to get one yourself and the place to do it is Capitol Tattoo in Silver Spring.
This remarkably clean shop has a friendly and helpful staff who will assist you in deciding how exactly you want to express yourself and your love of self this Valentine's Day. Located in Silver Spring since 1992, the good people of Capitol Tattoo offer you a good, safe environment with good, safe prices, as well. They perform all manner of piercings on site and most cost $50 with the jewelry included.
The cheapest tattoos (a small heart, for example) will cost you at least $35. All manageable prices. So, after the yoga or the dinner, or even the movie, get yourself over to Capitol Tattoo and have a Valentine's Day you really won't forget.
